DESCRIPTION

Born in the heart of Africa, Vango Gold is a marble that tells ancient stories through its deep brown background, crossed by veins fading into warm bronze and amber hues, like traces of light captured within the stone. Its strong soul is expressed through hardness and durability that stand the test of time, while its rich and enveloping texture captures and holds the gaze, transforming every surface into a sensory experience. Vango Gold is not merely a natural stone, but a narrative of matter, light, and character, capable of giving identity and charm to any space it inhabits.
