DESCRIPTION

Monet Green is an Asian marble distinguished by its intense green color, crossed by veins and tone-on-tone shades that enhance its natural depth. The different color gradations make the surface dynamic and full of movement, highlighting the stone's aesthetic qualities. Thanks to its good compactness, Monet Green is suitable for numerous applications in both elegant interior settings and outdoor spaces. When paired with lighter materials and tones, it creates refined and sophisticated contrasts that are particularly appreciated by designers, architects, and natural stone enthusiasts.
