DESCRIPTION

Elegant North African marble characterized by a deep black background crossed by irregular golden and orange veins. Strongly recommended in a glossy finish, it stands out for its crystalline structure capable of enriching the environment around it with extraordinary shine. Port Laurent is a material resistant to wear and abrasion, therefore ideal for creations such as floors, wall coverings, stairs, kitchens and bathrooms.

Applications: claddings, floor tiles, kitchen and bathroom vanity tops

Finishing: Bushhammered, Flamed, Polished, Sandblasted
