DESCRIPTION

Scandinavian marble quarried in Lapponia, Verde Lapponia stands out for its high resistance to impact and external agents, making it suitable even for high-stress applications. Its surface reveals a refined chromatic spectrum spanning the full range of greens, with deep, shifting nuances that evoke the luminous suggestions of the Northern Lights. The natural alternation of tones creates movement and exclusivity in every slab, ensuring each installation is truly unique. In terms of structure and technical performance, Verde Lapponia features characteristics comparable to quartzite, guaranteeing compactness, durability, and excellent workability. Ideal for flooring, wall cladding, kitchen countertops, and bathroom surfaces, it represents a premium solution for residential and contract projects requiring elegance, strength, and a distinctive material identity.

Applications: claddings, floor tiles, kitchen and bathroom vanity tops
